Volume 24, Issue 2

The Derringer shoot was fun; however, the weather was gloomy. We only shot 5 stages due to some very angry weather headed toward the range. We had some awesome homemade chicken noodle soup donated by TX Alline. Thank-you Mom! We did scores and awards and then...we had the drawing for a brand new .38 Bond Cowboy Defender Derringer worth $550 donated by BlueBonnet Belle. BLACKFOOT DRIFTER was our big winner!! Congratulations! Well, Blackfoot Drifter already has a derringer, so he donated it back to the club for a raffle event. Information coming soon about the raffle!

I hope everyone can make it out to our March shoot. Wear your Green. Justa Hand is making complimentary homemade pulled pork sandwiches for our shooters!

Oakwood Outlaws February 2024

Happy Valentine's Day from Oakwood! The wet weather put a damper on our Derringer shoot/giveaway, but the show must go on. We had 10 shooters and all but 3 of them shoot in our special Derringer category. At the awards, Belle passed out the tickets and Gunslinger drew for the Bond Arms Cowboy Defender. Blackfoot Drifter won the new gun and donated it back to the club to raffle off. Thank you Blackfoot for that very generous donation. Stay tuned for more on the raffle to give away the new Derringer. The rain started just before the shoot, but luckily I had extra scenarios written for the first three stages, so we stayed undercover. The wind picked up, so we gave the posse the choice. After the 5th stage, the posse voted to stop the match and not shoot the sixth stage or the side match. We also had an old friend join us, one that we had not seen in a while. Stingbean joined us for our derringer shoot and it was great to see him again! Hope to see him and y'all back to shoot with us again soon!

Sunday's shoot was canceled due to the horrendous weather forecast and the weather did not disappoint or did depending on how you look at it. It poured and we even got hail Sunday morning. Good thing we punted, and used the afternoon to get ready for Monday!

For Monday's shoot, Valentine's Day played into the stories and lines. Fallingblock joined us for Monday, since Sunday was a rain out. Shadow Doc shoot clean, which is difficult in Wild Bunch given the number of rounds, especially the 1911 at the rifle targets. Burr Bunn's new special target for the side match was a hit and the horses ars made an appearance again. Shadow Doc also shot the side match clean and scored all four bonuses earning himself a Cowboy Valentine's Mug. Hope y'all enjoy our little fun prizes!

March of course will likely reference the green, leprechauns and four leaf clovers. We will have another fun side match as well. We will likely start selling raffle tickets to give away the new derringer. We will have to figure out when we will do the drawing. Saturday there may be some fun trivia with the scenarios and lines. One of the days the moving target at the Town Center may reappear. Still cogitating what other fun surprises to unveil. In March, Monday's featured category will be Teddy Roosevelt, then in April Doughboy and in May Wild Bunch and repeat.

So, come out and join us for our March events starting with our Friday Night Social. If you want to join us the entire weekend, we have camping and RV spots. Check out our website at www.oakwoodoutlaws.org for all the details. Come shoot with us in March! Y'all come shoot with us and join the Outlaws for March, wear your green!
