Thank-you for coming out this month. Everyone had a great time celebrating America's 250th. We decorated the range including a custom Oakwood Outlaws 250 banner. All shooters won a gift in the drawings, a 250 flag and a 250 hat pin. I even have left-over items for August. I want to give a shout out to Justa Hand and Texas Alline. They made a wonderful hot dog and banana split lunch for us. The banana splits had homemade red, white and blue sauces on them. Then, we had strawberries dipped in white chocolate. They were GREAT! Thank-you!

I hope to see everyone at our August Hawaiian Coconut Bra shoot. We have lots of fun planned - heee heee Everyone will get lei-d. Come and see us in August! BlueBonnet Belle Happy Birthday, America! Well, July was definitely muggy, but it was overcast so not as hot as it could have been. Saturday's theme was the revolutionary war, and the scenarios were choice, meaning there were a lot of choices on shooting direction, order, etc. It was also a no bonus match, so to get a clean match, you had to earn it. We brought the plate racks back at the saloon for a bit of a challenge as well. Since we had not shot the plate racks in a while, I gave folks the chance to make up any missed plates with the shotgun. We had 11 shooters and five clean matches. Caddo Cruse took home the Justa Hand award, and I won the side match. Three folks shot clean with both bonuses, but I had the fastest time. Not sure how that happened. Justa Hand served a hot dog lunch for our patriotic shoot and had red, white and blue banana splits for dessert. We shot the buffalo speed stage at the Brothel again this month both Saturday and Sunday. We are tracking the fastest lady and fastest man and will have a special award in December for the speed stage fastest times.

Sunday was still overcast and seemed a bit less muggy to me. The theme was still American independence, pre-revolution. We had seven shooters and four clean matches, though Fallingblock and Ms. Laurie Darlin' did not need bonuses to get theirs. Jake Cutter took home the Justa Hand award, and I won the side match again, being the only one to shoot it clean with all three bonuses. It was hot dogs and banana splits at Justa Kitchen again. We shot the Town Center this month to bring back the moving rifle target. Shooting at the bonus was optional and you had to return to the rifle and load on the clock, so the bonus really cost time, but gave folks a chance to get a clean match if they had a miss or two or a procedural.

Monday the weather was threatening, but we had our Wild Bunch shoot. It did start to rain as we finished the fourth stage and stage five was the saloon, so it is under cover. It was raining hard enough that we called it after stage five and did not shoot the side match. We had four doughboy shooters and one cowgirl. We had one clean match, and Noah Deer took home the Justa Hand award. Justa Kitchen served hot dogs again, and we congregated in the scoring building for awards. We had special door prize drawings all three days with great prizes. Every shooter took home a door prize each day; many were July 4th themed.

August continues our summer relaxed dress code, and the theme is Hawaiian Cowboy. The featured category on Monday will be Wild Bunch. We have not received many responses on the ROBS Wild Bunch course, so please let us know if you would be interested via email at oakwoodoutlaws@yahoo.com. Hope to see you in August for our Hawaiian shoot. Until then … Keep your powder dry!!!!!
