Keeping the Spirit of the Old West Alive in East Texas

April 2026

Volume 26, Issue 4

Thank-you for coming out to our April 2026 shoot. April brought in warmer temps. We used the stage fans and AC in the office and bathrooms. The threat of rain on Sunday kept everyone except Doc Moses from coming out. It was really good to visit with him. He decided not to practice and save his ammo for next month. On another note, the desktop publishing software that I use (MS Publisher) for our newsletter and a lot of other club documents is being disconnected by Microsoft. So, I have been testing various software packages and have settled on Adobe In-Design. It has a huge learning curve. This will be my first newsletter using the new software. Over the next several months, I will tweak the newsletter format as I learn the software. Wish me good luck! See you in May for the shoot & the ROBS class! BlueBonnet Belle Westward Ho, Outlaws! Saturday the scenarios were based on the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, which occurred in, you got it, April. It was overcast most of the time, so it did not get too hot, but Texas summer is here and it was sticky! Some folks went to the State Championships, so we missed some folks. We still had ten shooters. It was a no-bonus match, but we still had two clean matches, Jake Cutter, and me. Ms. Laurie Darlin' got the Justa Hand award. Red Hawk won the side match with seven hits out of a possible eight and three bonuses out of a possible four and earned himself a book about the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889.

Sunday Doc Moses and I were the only two shooters to show up, so we ran the timer and counted for each other. We both shot the fastest cleanest matches of our lives and tied for overall and the side match, JUST KIDDING!!!! The forecast scared most folks away, so we had to cancel the match due to fair weather cowboys. Really too bad. It was wet, but the rain stopped before match time. Not sure if we could have gotten a match in before the rain returned, but we could have finished up on the covered stages, if needed.

Monday the scenarios were based on the movie, Big Jake, Call me daddy again..... Fallingblock joined us on Monday since he did not get to shoot on Sunday. We had six shooters; well, the cowboy shooters had six shooters. NO! I mean six people shot the match! We had three clean matches, Ms. Laurie Darlin', Fallingblock, and Shadow Doc, and Laurie and Doc did not need bonuses to do it. Though Doc did load five extra rounds and hit the bonus target five times. As he said, "I came to shoot!". I loaded one extra round just to hit the bonus target for the fun of it. That would have earned me a clean match, if it had not been for a jam on the second stage that I could not clear. "Broke Gun!" cost me nine misses. The side match was fun, blastin' the Texas Star then the horse's rear target. Shadow Doc shot it clean with three bonuses, out of a possible four. He left the door open, but alas, no one else shot it clean, let alone with all four bonuses. He earned himself a deck of John Wayne playing cards, and a second amendment flag for his fine shootin'.

Well, here is hopin' that May stays Spring like, temperature wise, not water from the heavens wise. With the Texas State Match in the books, I am hopin' we have a good turn out in May. I'll keep the Saturday match simple and make it a no-bonus match in case we have more folks. I have some interesting side match prizes as well. The featured category on Monday will be Wild Bunch. We also have the ROBS class scheduled for May 30th. If you are interested, check out the details on our website.

So, come on out and join us in May. We hope to see you at the Oakwood Outlaws for some shootin' and some socializin'! Until then, Happy Trails!
