Volume 25, Issue 2

Thank-you shooters for coming out this month. I also want to thank TX Alline and Justa Hand, my mom & dad for providing complimentary lunch/snacks for our shooters after the match over the years. They prepare these dishes with their own money and provide them for free to our shooters and guests. This month, dad made ham & bean soup with a side of cornbread. Mom made a fruit salad with cream cheese dressing for our Monday shooters. It was so good!! Thank-you!!

See everyone in March!

Happy Valentine's Day from Oakwood! Wow, what beautiful shooting weather! Saturday was a bit warm, but we had a nice breeze. Actually it was down right windy toward the end of the shoot. Sunday was perfect shooting weather. Monday was a bit cold, but we had a nice fire and hot ham and bean soup. The soup was all three days, but the warmth was especially welcome on Sunday. It was nice to shoot all three days this month!!!

Saturday we had a good turn out (13 shooters). The scenarios were just cowboy with famous lines, Pilgram! We had four clean matches and Ms. Laurie Darlin' took home the Justa Hand award, so not the tallest tool in the shed. 🍌 The side match winner was Papa B, who earned a nice pair of Valentine's coffee mini mugs (6 oz) for blastin' eight CDs.

Sunday's shoot was Valentine's Day themed. We had seven shooters on Sunday and five clean matches, two of those did not need bonuses. Noah Deer was the Justa Hand award winner. Shalako Wray won the side match also with eight hits. Noah Deer tied him, but Shalako had two bonus hits to Noah's one. Had to hit the small heart sticker on the CD. Another pair of Valentine's Day mugs were his reward, along with a pair of thermal socks.

For Monday's shoot, it was groundhog day stories and lines. 🍌 We had six shooters on Monday and all Wild Bunch! We had four clean matches out of six, which is pretty good for Wild Bunch. I got the Justa Hand award, not the sharpest knife in the drawer! Shadow Doc won the side match hitting 9 CDs. Again, Noah Deer tied with hits, but Shadow Doc had 2 bonuses to break the tie. Another pair of mugs and another pair of socks awarded.

March will likely reference the green, leprechauns and four leaf clovers. We will have another fun side match as well. Perhaps on Sunday the moving target at the Town Center may reappear. In March, Monday's featured category will be Teddy Roosevelt, then in April Doughboy and in May Wild Bunch and repeat. It would be nice if the weather stayed toward the cool side and summer held off a bit more. Got more fun side match prizes.

So, come out and join us for our March events starting with our Friday Night Social at Mario's in Palestine. If you want to join us the entire weekend, we have camping and RV spots. Check out our website at www.oakwoodoutlaws.org for all the details. Come shoot with us in March and wear your green! You know, Top of the Mornin' and all that, IRISH!

Hope to see you in March, Pilgram!
