January in East Texas can bring forth all kinds of crazy weather—from ice/snow to warm sunny days. We cancelled the Saturday shoot due to temps in the low 20s and icy conditions. Sunday & Monday rang in the new year with great shooting weather—sunny & moderate temps. TEXAS GUNSLINGER came out with his wonderful wife, QUEEN OF HEARTS on Sunday to visit. It was so nice to see them. GUNSLINGER will reschedule the RO-I class as soon as the new material is available from SASS. I will keep everyone posted. Like January, February weather can be a bit dramatic. If we need to cancel a shoot, I will post on FB, X, our website & send an email blast. I will call our off-the-grid shooters. If you ever have a question about if we are shooting or not, we have a dedicated cell—call or text 903.545.2252. Thank-you shooters for supporting the Oakwood Outlaws! BlueBonnet Belle

Howdy fellow Outlaws! January said, Winter is here! Unfortunately, Winter brought cold and wet. We had to cancel the Friday Night Social and Saturday's match. It was bitter cold with freezing rain. We did not get the freezing rain at the range, but it was all around us and the roads were not safe. Luckily, the forecast made it clear early enough to get the word out. It was nasty, so no regret at canceling Friday and Saturday's events. Sunday and Monday were a bit chilly, but it warmed up to decent shooting weather by match time. The temps definitely gave folks a chance to wear their heavier cowboy duds. We had a decent turnout the other two days despite some regular shooters not being able to attend. Sunday and Monday were fun matches and TX Alline made homemade Beefy Vegetable Soup with toast, which she served free for lunch after the match, TOASTY!

Sunday and Monday the scenarios were outlaw themed. We kept them pretty simple too. Folks were already dealing with cold, no need to deal with brain freeze as well. We kept the bonus targets at the Saloon to give folks a chance to eliminate some misses. We also had a Winter Side Match both days. The winners got some fancy cowboy coffee mugs. The CDs were such a hit last month, we set some up as rifle targets and shot both rifle and pistol CD targets. We moved the pistol CD targets back a bit addin' to the challenge.

Sunday we had a hand full (5) clean matches out of 8 shooters. Doc Moses got the Justa Hand award which also came with some thermal socks for winter. Noah Deer won the side match with 8 hits, all 8 in the bonus! He earned two coffee mugs, 1 Cowboy & 1 Cowgirl. Monday Oklahoma Dee had our only clean match. Noah Deer took home the Justa hand and more winter socks. Shadow Doc won the side match with 8 hits, 6 in the bonus, shooting Doughboy! He got a fancy cowboy hat coffee mug for his CD shootin' skills.

In February, Valentine's Day will probably play into the stories and lines. We will have to get creative on the side match. The CDs are fun, but we need a Valentine angle! We'll also have to see what we do with the bonus targets. Monday, Wild Bunch will be featured. So, March will be Teddy Roosevelt and April will be Doughboy, then repeat. The plan is to do the "Pile o' Stuff" give away on Saturday in February. Justa Hand and Burr Bunn have been handing out tickets at each shoot and the plan was to draw in December. However, with the weather and cancelations, it was postponed a couple times. So, the plan is to do it in February at the Saturday shoot barring any weather or other circumstances. One ticket will be drawn for the whole "Pile o' Stuff". The ticket must be present. So, if you cannot make it and have tickets, give them to someone who will be present to collect.

So, for now, adios Outlaws from the Outlaws in Oakwood, until we meet again!
