WHEN I'M BORED I CALL BEST WESTERN MOTELS AND WHEN THEY ANSWER...BEST WESTERN

Happy Saint Patrick's Day from the Outlaws! The weather threatened and Saturday was rainy. Sunday was a bit cold, but Monday was beautiful. Wednesday we had a special shoot for some students from the Brook Hill School. It was a beautiful day, and the 19 students and the coach participated and had a great time! Oakwood Outlaw, Doc Moses, worked with us and the school to arrange this Cowboy Action Championship match, Jail Break '25 for the kids. We would also like to thank Gunslinger, Ms. Laurie Darlin' and Noah Deer for their assistance helping the kids, running the match and being all around pleasant and fun folks. We have been doing the Brook Hill School shoot for several years now and this year we had our first ever Clean Match, congrats to Benjamin Williams, no small feat, especially for a 9th grader. That's 20 pistol, 20 rifle and 4 shotgun targets.

Saturday, it was overcast and misty and during the third stage it started raining. We shot the Brothel scenario from the Town Hall and the Mercantile scenario from the Campfire. After 5 stages, everyone was ready to call it a day. We had no clean matches and did not shoot a side match, but Burr Bunn earned the Justa Hand Award, two mini St. Patty's day coffee mugs. Six Slinger shot his first ever Cowboy Action Shooting Match after being a spectator at several of our matches, way to go Greenhorn. Fallingblock had only one miss and was first overall. Jake and Laurie did not shoot the last stage. If Jake Cutter had shot the final stage and shot it clean, he may have dethroned Fallingblock for the day.....

On Sunday, it was cold and damp, but the fire was nice. Hundred X Kid joined us from Indiana. Unfortunately, he had some equipment issues, so he only got to shoot two stages. He stayed and hung out with us for the day though. He helped on the posse and really showed the "Cowboy Spirit". That day St. Patty's Day played into the stories and lines. Leprechauns and clurichauns were the villains. We had six clean matches and some of them did not need bonuses to do it, Fallingblock and Noah Deer. Weeze Anna won the Justa Hand award for the first time ever! Can you believe that? So, she took home a pair of St. Patty's day mini coffee mugs. Fallingblock won the Garter Gun Giveaway, well cap gun anyway. No side match as folks wanted to get to the hot lunch. Barbeque sandwiches with chips provided by Justa Hand and BlueBonnet Belle.

On Monday, The weather was great and Texas Independence was the theme for the scenarios. There were five Teddy Roosevelt shooters and one Wild Bunch shooter. Shadow Doc shot clean and Noah Deer won the Justa Hand award, and earned two St. Patty's day mini coffee mugs. Burr Bunn won the side match as the only clean shooter and he also had three bonuses. That earned him a set of St. Patty's day mini coffee mugs as well. Next month the featured category will be Doughboy, Wild Bunch in May and back to Teddy Roosevelt in June.
