Oakwood Outlaws November 2023

Hello from the Outlaws! November we honored our Veterans by celebrating Marine Corps Birthday at our Friday Night Social and all Vets shot free on Saturday. We did the targets up in red, white and blue with messages of thanks to our Vets. All the scenarios had stories and lines based on Veterans Day as well. A few folks even dressed in red, white and blue for the occasion.

The weather was absolutely wonderful. It gave folks a chance to get more creative with their duds without meltin'. The horses ars target made an appearance again giving folks a chance to eliminate four misses, but it was a bit more difficult. After the match, we had a Turkey Shoot side match. The winner, Doc Moses, took home a frozen turkey donated by Justa Hand. Texas Alline made pulled pork sandwiches for lunch both Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday it was Thanksgiving themed stages and another chance to eliminate up to four misses. Monday Teddy Roosevelt was the featured category. There were four chances at the ars to eliminate misses. On Monday Miss Laurie Darlin' took first place overall which was a big milestone for her. Maybe clean matches are not so overrated! Unfortunately, the ice box at the range went kaput! So, Justa Hand had a mess to clean up and there were no goodies on Monday.

In December, Christmas will probably take center stage. I am sure a Christmas theme will play into a special side match as well. I think we'll give the horses ars a rest, but there may be another creative way to eliminate a miss or two. On Monday, Doughboy will be the featured category. Blackfoot Drifter came up with the brilliant idea to rotate the Monday featured category, that way folks can plan further in advance. So, January will be Wild Bunch, February Teddy Roosevelt and March Doughboy and repeat.

Speaking of February, we are going to do a special shoot that is going to involve a special shooting category and a gun give away! So, be watchin' for more info on that little surprise. For now, Happy Trails and Happy Thanksgiving from Oakwood!
